

Maths

In maths we are looking at place value as well as addition and subtraction, we are following the White Rose scheme of work in maths

Religious Education

Religious Education: Pupils will be looking at the beginning of life on Earth

Int Speaker: Learning to speak confidently in public

ICT: Using MS Word to create Top Trumps fact card based on NASA

History

With reference to slavery how events of the past have shaped today.

The use of evidence and artefacts to inform our view of the past

Use timelines and explore how the lives of the rich and poor were different

Music

Listen to the sounds of 'Sacret Spirit' from Native American culture. Be able to sing in harmony.

To recognise the work of a famous composer (Beethoven) and explain what they like or dislike about some music.

Art

Sketching and pencil techniques to create a scene from an illustrated book, 'The Wolves of Currampaw'

Science

Understand what a force is and that forces are needed to make different things move (and stop). Recognise that objects travel differently on different surfaces. Be able to say what a magnet is and discover which materials are magnetic.

North America and it's Culture

Reading VIPERS

Focus book: Matilda (Roald Dahl)

Geography

Volcanoes

Earthquakes

Describing a location and why we choose to live in a particular place

Design Technology

Create and paint a ceramic pinch pot of a wolf

English

Stories with familiar settings - 'Uncle Remus', 'Matilda', 'The Indian in the Cupboard'

Reports - Superheroes in Newspapers