

Maths

In maths we are looking at multiplication and division following the White Rose Maths scheme

Religious Education

Religious Education: Religious Festivals, Christmas and Diwali

Int Speaker: Learning to speak confidently in public

ICT: Basic coding using Purple Mash

History

The Roman Invasion of Britain and the construction of Hadrian's Wall.

How artefacts help us to learn about the past.

With reference to Latin, how the Roman legacy remains in our language, our calendar and units of measurement and even maths lan-

Music

Review music from films such as Gladiator to see how it can be used to convey emotion and build up the story with dramatic effect.

To play a tune on a tin whistle.

To learn to recognise and play musical notes

Art

Design, construct and decorate a Roman / Greek shield based on historical data or mythical lore.

Science

Understand how plants and animals obtain food. learn that humans and other animals have skeletons and muscles for support and protection and the names for parts of those bones/muscles. Also categorise how certain animals require specific diets.

Greeks and the Romans

Reading VIPERS

Focus book: Percy Jackson and the Lightning Thief (Rick Riordan)

Geography

Using maps such as OS to see the impact of Roman invasion on our country.

A case study of Chester, how and why it was built where it is. How the city has changed over time with the pacification of this country.

Knowing geographical terms to describe a place

English

Myths and Legends: The tales of Odysseus and the Cyclops, The Trojan Horse, the fables of Aesop

Performance Poems: Poems such as the Witch, looking at 'Cats' and how rhyme and alliteration are used. Bonfire Night calligrams